

Workshop on "Resume-making and Interview-cracking"

It is truly said that "true guidance is like a small torch in a dark forest; it does not show everything at once but gives enough light for the next step to be safe". Workshop on "Resume-making and Interview-cracking" by our esteemed alumni Mr. Mukesh Kulothia, Management Consultant, IBM India Pvt. Ltd, Civil Engineering, 2005 batch and Mr. Ankur Poddar, Divisional HR Manager, Marico, Electronics and Communication Engineering, 2005 batch on August 23rd, 2014 provided an insight on various aspects considered by any HR while short listing a candidate for any job. One of the toughest challenges today for freshers is to present 20 years hard-work on a sheet of paper, without compromising on necessary minute details, to creating lasting impression in one go. An impressive resume is a reflection of your personality and a first step to your dream job. Mind boggling tips from Mukesh sir for resume really changed our outlook. Interview is a mutual-selling process where each party negotiates with each other's pros and cons. Ankur sir enlightened us about changing trends of interviews from traditional technical-know-how based to modern all-rounder personality based, judging consistency in performance, managerial skill and behavioral stability. This take and give session by our alumni cleared many of our myths and taboo's. The session was attended by about 120 students aspiring to gain from experience of our alumni. We aim to welcome more of our Distinguished Alumni to guide the young minds of MNIT in Future.
